BULL MOOSE PARADE IN N.Y.
NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—A great page similar to the one held twelve years ago when Theodore Roosevelt was nominated for the vice presidency will be held in this city today under the auspices of the progressive party. It was originally planned that Colonel Roosevelt should appear in the parade which will wind up with a great meeting at Madison Square Garden, but the doctors have been trying to persuade him not to risk the excitement of such an event.

Indication marked the early dealings price fluctuating fractionally. Trading showed well above yesterday's close figures and since perchance Big Amalgamated were materially below.

Further weakness was shown by today's stock market, the result probably of money conditions.

Money opened at big per cent, the highest initial rate in some days. Big Amalgamated was most urgent in the second hour, when money went to 15.

Bonds easy.

Liquidation was temporarily suspended at midday, but the liquidators rally was fierce and the short interest made another attack on prices when
